Print on Demand .I m a relatively creative person. I love to sing, dance, and act. But for years I stayed away from the visual arts. That is not my forte. Although I enjoy paintings and sculptures, I thought I wasn t good at this form of creativity. Then one day a friend invited me to a painting party. We went to someone s home. Each of us had a canvas and there were several brushes and paints to share. Someone had brought some examples of easy to re-create paintings. All I had to do was copy it. I was still hesitant. My drawings had yet to evolve past stick figures so I wasn t sure how to pull this off. But when I was surrounded by other friends, who were all giving insight into the creative process, I discovered I could do it. What I couldn t do alone, synergy let me accomplish with the help of others. Synergy is that moment when different elements come together to create something that couldn t be done alone. In 2006,...
