Mr. Arnold--My observation is that the dispensing by physicians is on the increase. If they have a real bad case they will write a prescription; otherwise they dish out some cheap tablet. Three or four physicians supply houses send men to our town regularly. Other towns in my county report the same condition. Mr. Bastei/w--There must be some cause for this self-prescribing and I would like to know if any one has a reason to assign for it. Mr. Wooten in his paper yesterday said it was the duty of the druggist to make the physician believe he was not the ignoramus he thought him to be. I think the physicians in my part of country think the...
