Hartranft. Old Qoshenhoppen Church, Erected in 1744. Mr. William J. Buck deserves the thanks of local historians and all lovers of local antiquities for making a drawing of the first Old Goshenhoppen church before it was dismantled in 1858. In our last number he tells in an entertaining way how he came to make a view of the building. He kindly permitted us to use the engraving made from his sketch of the ancient landmark. This house of worship was built in 1744, (not 1774, as misprinted,) and had therefore served the Reformed and Lutheran congregations one hundred and fourteen years, when it was taken down to make way for a new edifice. Leisure Hour Poems, by Charles K. Meschter, of Worcester, Pa, is a volume of thirty pages, issued from the press of A....
