GOAT-RAISING IN B. C, VOL. 64 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Goat-Raising in B. C, Vol. 64 Since the first issue of Bulletin No. 64, Angora and Milch Goats. in 1915, keen, interest in the milk goat has been shown by the general public, particularly by suburban dwellers, small holders and ranchers in outlying districts, and the industry has shown satisfactory development. People are beginning to realize that there is a place for the milk goat in British Columbia, and that as a provider of cheap and wholesome milk for the family she is hard to beat. Unfortunately, the supply is not nearly equal to the demand, and in consequence high prices prevail, and will do so for some time. Prospective buyers should not be deterred, however, by the apparent high cost, because the subsequent expense of feed is only nominal, it is possible that after the war we may be able to import goats from Europe to help supply the undoubted need for them. Though there are only about a thousand milk goats in the Province at the present time, the number is rapidly increasing, and it may safely be said that they have come to stay. British Columbia is an ideal country for goats, and there is no reason why the milk-goat industry should not rival that of Switzerland and Germany, which before the war produced between them annually nearly $60,000,000 of milk-goat products. As an indication of the interest being taken in the goat industry may be mentioned the formation of the British Columbia Goat-breeders Association early in 1917; this association at the end of its first year had a membership of 176. There has also been incorporated the Canadian Goat Society, which,...
