Palgrave Macmillan, UK, 2012. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. Available Now. Book Description: In Peaceful Islamist Mobilization in the Muslim World: What Went Right, Julie Chernov Hwang presents a compelling and innovative new theory and framework for examining the variation in Islamist mobilization strategies in Muslim Asia and the Middle East. Based on extensive field research in Indonesia, Malaysia and Turkey, Hwang argues that states, through their policies, institutions, and capacities, can influence the mobilization strategies that Islamist groups choose, encouraging peaceful strategies, or sometimes, creating permissive conditions for violence. She offers an important corrective that shifts the debate away from the narrower focus on violent mobilization that has dominated the...
