O Muse! reveal not to the vulgar mind Their sacred thoughts of loveliness refin d, And dream not, breathe not how her virgin love Made tender feelings in her bosom move, Nor how his soul, enlarged with hope of pelf, Swelled high in conscious worship of himself. Lo! how their hands in friendly trust they clasp, What whole orations lie within the grasp! And who but envied, as with joy elate High on the bubble throne they took their state? Attendant lies are buzzing all about And thick ning hiss amid the eager rout, As locusts gathering o er the desert swell So clouds of falsehoods flutter up from hell, And all declare th elected chief a saint, And all his mind in glowing colours paint. Some said...
