Her book of daily readings cover a range of experiences, emotions and feelings that survivors of childhood sexual abuse, incest and rape grapple with in the aftermath of the deep violation of sexual abuse from their childhoods that weave heavily into their adult lives. A survivor herself, she gives us a view that shows daily the post-traumatic stress experiences of survivors who question every aspect of their psyches and who are on a journey of personal healing. Praise for We Women of Many Shades and Hues: There is the deep work of healing and there is the daily work of healing. Survivors and those who love and support them know intimately that we wish for the healing to be fast. For some of us, it can be fast. For most of us our healing work is daily. Shirley Itim Melo Phelps has written a daily companion book that is...
