FUNNY LITTLE WARS: GAMES OF WAR IN THE GARDEN WITH CLASSIC TOY SOLDIERS IN THE SPIRIT OF MR. H G WELLS

(Virtual) Armchair General Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 150 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.4in. Author Paul Wright has written an instant classic already receiving wide praise from readers and hobby magazine editors. FLW both leads and follows the growing interest in 54mm (1: 32) war games and figures. Written in part as a tribute to HG Wells ground breaking Little Wars, FLW is a much expanded and broadened modernization. There is a fascinating chapter devoted to Wells the Man and his journey with his Little Wars from inception to the day in 1916 when he put the game away for good. For Wells fans, the author may surprise with information you did not know, or could even guess. Retaining many of Wells original rules (spring-loaded toy cannon, etc), there are additional rules for Shell Bursts, machine guns, observation balloons and aircraft, field hospitals, supply wagons and dumps, spies, military bands, unit Colors and Standards, Brigade and Division Commands, hidden movement, skirmishers, snipers, signals, morale, variable effects of terrain and more. Infantry units are 20 figures strong, Cavalry 12, and Artillery can appear as single Guns with crews, or as Batteries up to three strong. From 2 to 4 such units typically form a Brigade, the perfect command for each Player. Two or more Brigades form a Division, allowing a Player to act as his sides C-in-C. Brigade and Divisional HQs are represented by variable numbers of Staff and ADCs, marching on foot, mounted on prancing steeds, or even seated in Rolls Royce, Cadillac, Renault, or other grand Staff Cars from the Golden Age of Motoring. These HQs send orders to the units on the firing line, and back to the Brigadiers and Generals, come reports from scouts--and desperate messages from the front delivered by Runners-- and even Pigeons!...
