Excerpt: . and who are you ? * Tm going to Gort on a message? says she, and Tm Mrs. Hession s daughter of such a place. Well, she came home, and that very night she got a pain in her thigh, with respects to you, and she and her mother have half the world walked since then, trying to get relief for her; but never a bit better did she ever get. And no doubt at all but that s the very same day Michael Barrett saw them in the field near Hession s house. I asked Mr. Yeats to come with me to see the old man, and we walked up the long narrow lane, from which we could see Slieve Echtge and the Burren hills, to the little cabin with its broken chimney where Michael Barrett told us of those that had disturbed his rest. This was the first time we went together to enquire into the Hierarchy of the Sidhe, of which by degrees we have gathered so much traditional and original knowledge. As to old Barrett, I saw him from time to time, and he told me he was still tormented, and that there is one that sat and sang b-b-b all the night til a few evenings before he had got a bit of rag and tied it to a long stick, and hit at him when he came, and drove him out with the rest. And in the...
